

Staff Scientist

Scientific Support Group
Full-Time Indeterminate Position

About Us

SNOLAB is an international facility for world-class underground physics research and has an expanding programme in astroparticle physics and underground science. Located in an air-conditioned clean room 2 km underground in the Vale Creighton Mine near Sudbury Ontario, with a suite of surface facilities and laboratories, SNOLAB is currently preparing for the next generation of experiments focusing on neutrino studies and the search for galactic dark matter.

The Position

The SNOLAB Staff Scientist will support the laboratory and the experimental program at SNOLAB. This will include supporting the laboratory in low-background counting, assays of the SNOLAB water system, and analytical services in the chemistry laboratories. The Staff Scientist will support Research Scientists in all phases of experimental work including dissemination of results in technical reports, journal articles, and conference presentations and proceedings. Support for experiments will include scientific support including detector design, assembly, commissioning, operation, programming and analysis.

Criteria

Education:

a Master's degree level in physics, engineering physics, chemistry, or a closely related discipline
